

Community Matters Business Partner Program

Connecting visionary businesses with local government leaders for smart growth projects

CREATING COMMUNITY IMPACT

Are you a business leader who wants to support local projects for thriving communities? Do you want to build strong local government relationships?

CivicWell works to advance sustainable community solutions throughout California and the nation. Through our Community Matters Business Partners Program, we connect our network of local government officials with strategic private sector leaders who can provide a range of support—from planning to feasibility to financial implementation.

With your help, we can create a strong pipeline of transformative smart growth projects. You can expand your impact through cutting-edge initiatives advancing sustainable, equitable community solutions.

IMPLEMENT YOUR UNIQUE IDEA

CivicWell will work with your company to customize a benefit that will fit your needs. Potential strategies include CivicWell submitting an Op-Ed for an agreed-upon mission-aligned topic or assisting in providing policy recommendations. We will work with your team to identify the most impactful direction and resources.

A WORD FROM OUR BUSINESS PARTNER

CivicWell will provide one branded spot in our LPU newsletter. Business Partners have the opportunity to share education or resources (150 words) on livability issues. All messages must be approved in advance; this is not meant for company advertorial purposes.

DATA SOURCING

Are you looking to source more data in a specific target region? CivicWell can help inform your business initiatives by surveying or polling a specific target region about sustainability and livability issues. We will work with you on questions and distribute the poll or survey through our contacts. All information collected will be shared directly with you.

FACEBOOK LIVE Q&A

Get exposure as a thought leader on an educational livability topic* with a CivicWell-hosted live lightning talk (20 minutes) with one representative from your company. We will promote the event in advance, and share the recording on our social media after the event. Format of this produced event will be coordinated in advance. All Facebook Live events are meant to provide education, and are not for company advertorial purposes.
